

Genuine Hothouse Spring Lamb
ORDER 1/4 FOR SUNDAY
 STRAWBERRIES and ASPARAGUS
 NEW POTATOES and DANDELIONS
 EGG PLANT and SQUASH
SEEDLESS JERUSALEM ORANGES
 Finest Ever
EXTRA FANCY EXPORT ROAST BEEF
 Nothing as fine in Norwich
SOMERS
 EDWIN W. HIGGINS,
 Attorney-at-Law,
 210 Broad Street, Norwich, Conn.

The Dime Savings Bank OF NORWICH.
DIVIDEND
 The regular Semi-annual Dividend has been declared from the net earnings of the past six months at the rate of Four per cent. a year, and will be payable on and after May 15.
 FRANK L. WOODARD,
 ap22daw Treasurer.

Shur-on Eyeglass Mountings
 Each mounting is made of selected material of great durability. Shur-on Eyeglass Mountings wear well.
 The bridge is rigid. Shur-on Eyeglass Mountings hold lenses in the right position.
 Made to put on and take off with one hand. Shur-on Eyeglass Mountings are convenient.
 Shaped to follow the outline of the crest of the nose.
 Shur-on Eyeglass Mountings are refined and graceful in appearance.

The Plant-Cadden Co.,
 Optical Department
 144 Main St., Norwich, Conn.

MILK DEALERS!
 All producers of or dealers in milk, skim-milk, buttermilk or cream, shipping or selling any of the same without a license procured since Jan. 1st of the current year, are hereby warned that they are hereby warned to comply with our city ordinance concerning the same, at once.
 D. J. SHAHAN, M. D.,
 Norwich, Conn., April 26th, 1913.
 apr26d

RALLION
 Will Have Strawberries TODAY

HARRISON FISHER HEADS
 FOR TINTING
 Size 10 cents
 Size 25 cents
 Besides the above we have 300 other new subjects in all sizes.
The Broadway Store
 67 Broadway, opp. Y. M. C. A.

THIS WEEK IT'S "MATCHES TO BURN"
 1 dozen 5c Boxes,
 Double Dip, Best Quality
33c
 ALL BEST TEAS
 25c lb.
United Tea Importers Co.,
 Franklin Sq., over Somers Bros.

IF YOU are thinking of a SPRING SUIT
 call and see what I can do for you.
COXETER, Tailor
 33 Broadway

HAVE YOU A FRIEND THAT HAS ASTHMA?
 Recommend AS-MOON.
 It will at the first relieve and eventually cure ASTHMA in its most stubborn form. Order through your druggist.
The Moon Pharmacy,
 465 Bank St., New London

Norwich Veterinary Hospital
 DR. F. D. COLES,
 Proprietor
 Rear 17 Chestnut Street
 Phone Connection

The Bulletin.
 Norwich, Monday, April 28, 1913.
VARIOUS MATTERS.

Open cars were run on some of the lines Saturday.

Flowering almond is one of the spring shrubs in bloom.

Members of the Pequot colony are opening their summer houses.

Neesha Whist tonight in T. A. B. hall.—Adv.

This is vacation week in some of the public school districts of the state.

The gray tulip beds in the courthouse yard are admired by all who pass that way.

The handsome terraces at the post-office were freed from dandelion roots Saturday.

Services for the seventh day of the Passover were held in the synagogue Sunday evening.

Local societies are being notified that German day is to be celebrated in New Britain Monday, August 11.

The little mills, incorporated, of Sprague have decided that the capital has been increased from $50,000 to $70,000.

The woods along the line of the Norwich-Westerly Traction company are white with blossoms of the delicate shadow.

The measure that provided that no railroad orders be transmitted by telephone was rejected last week in the shadow.

The body of Mrs. Emma Bidwell, who died at the Norwich state hospital, was sent from here Saturday on the 2:25 train to East Hartford.

The town clerk's office will be open Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9. License your dogs before May first or pay one dollar extra.—Adv.

The suffrage campaigners who were in Norwich week before last are now in Ansonia, and will go to Danbury, New York and Stamford before disbanding the last of May.

The Connecticut Association of Public School Superintendents is to hold its 14th meeting Friday and Saturday, May 9 and 10, at the Hotel Telfer and Oxborn hall, New Haven.

The signal men in the tower service of the Consolidated system received notice Friday that their pay had been increased to 30 cents a day, commencing April 15th.

The Torrington Register notes that Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Higgins of Norwich were in the box of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Harty at the charity ball in Torrington last night.

Friends from out of town joined the local relatives at an anniversary reunion held at the Hotel Telfer and Oxborn hall, New Haven, Saturday.

Connecticut subjects of the Austrian government have received notice from the Austrian consul of New York to return to their country within ten days, war with the Montenegro is feared.

This (Monday) afternoon the board of government of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of Connecticut held a meeting in New Haven at the rooms of the St. Aloysius T. A. and B. society.

Luigi Martine of East Lyme was committed to the Norwich state hospital by Judge Austin L. Bush of East Lyme Friday. The demented man was conveyed to the institution by Constable Tubbs.

The wage controversy between the Brotherhood of Railway Telegraphers and the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad has been settled. The 1,435 men in that arm of the service getting an advance of 7 per cent.

In order to give better satisfaction and results, the hours of the delivery of mail at Groton have been changed. In place of a delivery in the afternoon the carriers start immediately after the 11 o'clock mail is distributed.

New Haven is preparing a bill welcome for the delegates who will attend the 29th annual encampment of the Connecticut division, Sons of Veterans, which will be held at the city Tuesday and Wednesday at Grand Army hall.

Jack Rose has finally purchased a country place in Westport and will settle down with his family. The nine room house is surrounded by six acres of land and is in an aristocratic neighborhood, about a mile from the station.

At the 17th international exhibition of paintings which opened last week at the Carnegie hall in New York, representing 14 nations and comprising 352 canvases, the third medal was awarded to Gifford Beal, one of the Lyme artists.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Dyer of Hedge avenue to the marriage of their daughter, Anna Jane Dyer, to Frank C. Palmer of New York. The wedding will take place May 15 at 7 o'clock at Broadway church.

Governor Baldwin has received a letter from Secretary of War Garrison asking the aid of this state in the attempt of congress to collect or copy and classify, with a view to publication, the scattered military records of the War of the Revolution.

A mass was celebrated Saturday morning at St. John's church, Saybrook, for Conductor John Shea, killed on his train at Stratford April 26, 1912. He resided in New London, where his duty called him, but his parents reside at Saybrook Point, where he was born.

The dairy commissioners by a new law will have the same powers with respect to the detection and prosecution of unlawful sales of cold storage, preserved or incubated eggs as now conferred upon him with reference to the sale of butter, vinegar or other food products.

Owing to construction work on the main road between Flanders and New London, it is suggested by the A. C. C. that drivers of motor cars should, before reaching Flanders, make the run over good country road to Niantic. From Niantic run through Gritville and Waterford to New London.

An Orange, Mass., despatch to a New York Sunday paper stated that Mrs. Thompson, who inherits a third of the nearly $2,000,000 left by her first husband, J. W. Wheeler, the sewing machine millionaire, married Rev. G. Tabor Thompson, pastor of the First Baptist church of Orange, Sunday night.

Saturday night the street department did something in the clean-up line. Washing machines were placed on pavement on Franklin street and the Franklin square section of the vitrified brick pavement, Sunday night, they washed off the rest of the vitrified brick pavement as far as Burnham square.

Naturally Froze Him Out

April 16 was the coldest day this country has known in 29 years, according to no less an authority than ex-Chief Moore, of the Weather Bureau.—St. Louis Republic

PERSONAL.

Barrie Herrick of Pawtucket was at his home in this city over Sunday.

Miss Ida Ribner of Norwich is visiting Miss S. Reiner of New London.

Arthur Robinson and Mr. Fox of New York were visitors in town over Sunday.

Miss Olive Hunt of Huntington place was the guest of Boston friends over Sunday.

Mrs. W. A. Saunders of Essex is spending several days visiting relatives in Norwich.

John Moore, Jr., who is employed at Waterbury, spent the week end at his home in this city.

Joseph Mitchell of this city is spending a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Goff of East Hampton.

Miss Constance Conner of New Haven and John McLaughery of Norwich are guests of Miss Kathleen Kennally of South Main street, Torrington.

Herman Budnick, Samuel Curland, Edward Smith, John Nagles and A. Curland visited the scene of the high school fire at Williamantic Sunday.

Mrs. David Sullivan and Miss Gertrude Sullivan of Norwich and Mrs. May Congdon of New London were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Higgins on Main street, Jewett City.

WILL MAKE GOOD SUM FROM PLAY

Children of Mary of St. Joseph's Church Give Clever Production.

The children of Mary of St. Joseph's church, organized in February under the direction of the pastor, Rev. J. J. Higgins, gave a clever and successful play Saturday evening at Frothingham hall before an audience of several hundred, who enthusiastically applauded the good work of the young actors.

The costumes were all in the old country dress for both the men and the women, making a novel and pretty stage picture.

The play was in one act and represented a village wedding. It was presented under the direction of Miss Sophia Francis, who as the bride had some of the leading parts and did noticeably fine work. She has appeared in the same part twice before in other cities.

Others in the cast included Joseph Pysyk and Joseph Pank, her two sisters, Wanda Kuzowski, John Janik, Julia Givladowska, Stanley Pank, Annie Lach, John Jakubowski, Fannie Bieloch, Aleck Mierzwski, B. Domkowski and the children of the church.

Dancing followed the play, the music being by Stetson brothers' orchestra.

The proceeds of the evening, which will be for the altar at the church, will be $100. The children of St. Joseph's have a membership of 73 and is the first society of Polish girls organized in the parish.

FUNERALS.

Mrs. Maria Roach Peale.

The funeral of Mrs. Maria Roach Peale was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Frazier, of Norwich.

Many friends and former neighbors from the old country were present. Rev. J. J. Higgins conducted the service. Mention was made of the high ideals cherished, the hope, joy and peace exemplified in her life. Mrs. Peale's devotion to her church and the walk with God through the long years of her life were the subjects of the service. The service was sympathetically rendered by Mrs. Charles G. Pierce.

Among the floral offerings were many sprays and wreaths of pink and white roses, a cluster of calla lilies, and a large arrangement of white flowers.

Members of Colonel Peale's regiment acted as bearers: Henry Hoxie, Timothy Hoxie, Charles G. Pierce, and John Service. Burial was in the family lot in Yantic cemetery, where a committal service was read at the grave by Rev. Mr. Wyckoff. Henry Allen & Son had charge of the arrangements.

Relatives who attended included Roscoe Frazier of Providence, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Frazier of New Haven and Mr. and Mrs. William Frazier of Mystic. Postmaster William Caruthers and a delegation from the postal clerks were among those attending the funeral.

Mrs. Charles Carbay.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Carbay took place from the home of her sister, Mrs. Patrick Carbay, at 220 Franklin street, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Burial was in St. Patrick's church at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. H. Broderick officiated. The bearers were Peter Carbay, John Carbay, Francis Brennan and John Coleman.

Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. There were many beautiful floral forms.

Mrs. Carbay's death occurred on Friday morning at 6:20 o'clock at the home of her sister after an illness of three weeks. She was 62 years of age and had lived for the past 28 years in Norwich, where 13 years ago she was married to Charles Carbay in St. Patrick's church by Rev. High Treanor. She was a loving wife and mother and had a large number of friends who will mourn her loss. She was the daughter of Peter Paban and Mary Murphy, and was born in Ireland.

Her husband, Charles Carbay, and two sisters, Mrs. Patrick Carbay and Mrs. Mary Carbay, are survivors. Mrs. Carbay was the widow of Charles Carbay, who died in 1908. She was the daughter of Peter Paban and Mary Murphy, and was born in Ireland.

The funeral of Antoinette Arturo of Stamford, who died Friday at the Norwich state hospital, was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Mary's church. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Girls Will Be Girls.

Yesterday the militant suffragists set fire to the house of an unsympathetic member of Parliament.—New York World.

LEARNING "HOME EFFICIENCY"

"Home efficiency is as important as business efficiency," says Louis Brandeis.

Home efficiency is not difficult to practice, and if applied to your buying will save you money, worry, time and effort.

Common sense is the first step toward efficiency in shopping. Consider how to use your time and money to best advantage. Know where to go, what to buy, and how to buy. Think on the things you need the money you can afford to spend. Buy wisely. Buy smart. Effort may be saved by shopping at the proper hour, shopping by phone, or by anticipating your wants and placing standing orders.

The merchants advertising in THE BULLETIN will gladly receive orders for goods from ladies. Read their advertisements in THE BULLETIN today and every day.

There is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to THE BULLETIN for business results.

NORWICH BULLETIN, MONDAY, APRIL 28, 1913
VEGETARIAN SERVICE FOR I. O. O. F.
Preached to Local Members of the Order by Rev. J. F. Cobb at Church of The Good Shepherd—Celebrates 94th Birthday of the Order.

In recognition of the 94th anniversary of the order, local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs attended the morning service at the church of the Good Shepherd, by special invitation of the pastor, Rev. J. F. Cobb, who is himself an Odd Fellow. The members of the order, numbering nearly one hundred, gathered at Odd Fellows' hall at 10 o'clock and proceeded to the church for the service.

Rev. Mr. Cobb spoke upon Love, the bond of brotherhood, taking his text from first book of John. He spoke as follows:

"I bid you welcome to this service today as we enter into the spirit of the birthday of the order. The 94th anniversary of the order is celebrated today. The members of the order, numbering nearly one hundred, gathered at Odd Fellows' hall at 10 o'clock and proceeded to the church for the service."

Love, then, is the chief of the graces. It thinks no evil, wishes no harm, does no wrong, is not given to jealousy, fault finding or suspicion. It is the keystone of the arch of all the Christian graces which gives beauty and symmetry and permanence to the others. Witness the acts of brotherhood of the rich and poor in Omaha where the recent tornado entailed the loss of many millions of dollars.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating this love, which was so dear to the heart of Christ.

Love, as another says, "is the parent of all virtues." Love begets justice and then the duty of mercy. It is the parent of patience, forbearance, humility and meekness.

The story of the good Samaritan is shown in our actions is through love as the controlling principle.

The Christian church has for 19 centuries been advocating